LITERATURE

Kaare Klint, Harkær, pg. 41

CONDITION

Leather with an attractive patina and mottled appearance varying from lighter to darker in areas as seen in the photography. Small closed tear to backside of one leather panel. Scuffs and abrasions to leather in keeping with age and use. Wooden legs also showing points of contact and abrasions from use over time. In all, a very nice example of this form in fine vintage condition. Leather appears to be original.
